CONDITIONS OF ENROLMENT INTO THE PROGRAM: please read carefully
➢ Enrolment into the program is subject to approval from the College Business Office advising that there are no outstanding fees to Suncoast Christian College
➢ Students will practice regularly (5 times each week)
➢ Students will maintain their instruments with due care
➢ Students will attend lessons punctually and with necessary books and equipment
➢ Students will be expected to participate in College band rehearsals and performances once an appropriate standard has been reached (this is at the teacher’s discretion)
➢ Payment for lessons will be made in advance for the term’s lessons. On receipt of invoice, payment is required within four weeks and payable directly to the music teacher.
➢ Each term a levy of $15 will be included with school fees to assist the College with the costs of administering and maintaining the Instrumental Music Program
➢ Vocal students are required to join the College choir for their year level once enrolled in the program. Choir practices are held in the lunch hour.
➢ Students must notify the teacher of any absences in advance (e.g. excursions, exams or illness) in order for a lesson to credited or rescheduled.
➢ Students must complete one full term of tuition once enrolled into the program. A student may withdraw from the program after that period, but must give the teacher four weeks written notice via a completed and returned Withdrawal Form. This form can be obtained from the music teacher. In the event that four weeks’ notice is not provided, then payment of fees in lieu is required.

I understand and agree to all the above conditions of enrolment into the Suncoast Voice & Instrumental Program
