Other Caregiver: _____
(if applicable)

(jointly and severally, "you")

Suncoast Christian College Limited ABN 72 157 669 672 CRICOS Provider no: 00539J) ("we", "us", or "the College").

This Enrolment Contract is a legally binding document. The College strongly recommends that you read it carefully prior to signing the Contract.

NOW THE PARTIES AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

1. General:

- 1.1. You agree that this contract is the whole agreement between the parties, and sets out the relationship between the parties in respect to the education of the student, including but not limited to times when the Student is at the College Campus, attending College Camps, excursions, functions and co-curricular activities. This contract (as amended from time to time) will be binding and remain in force for the duration of the Student's enrolment at the College.
- 1.2. Failure or omission by a party to enforce or require strict or timely compliance with any provision of this Contract shall not affect or change that provision in any way or the rights of a party to avail themselves of the remedies they may have in respect of any breach.
- 1.3. This Enrolment Contract will be governed by the laws of Queensland and the parties agree that they will submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Queensland and the Federal Court and Courts entitled to hear appeals from those Courts.
- 1.4. Part(s) or all of any clause(s) of this Agreement that is illegal or unenforceable will be severed from this Agreement and the remaining provisions will continue in force.
- 1.5. The parties agree to be bound by this contract by the exchange of hard copy, scanned and emailed, scanned and uploaded, or faxed, signed copies. This Contract may also be exchanged in counterparts and the parties agree to be bound on the exchange of signed counterparts.

2. Disclosure and Warranties

- 2.1. You warrant that:
 - 2.1.1. You have read the completed Application for Enrolment submitted to us, and it is accurate and complete in all respects;
 - 2.1.2. You have read this enrolment contract carefully and fully understand your obligations in it;
 - 2.1.3. The Enrolment of the Student is with the agreement and consent of each person who exercises parental responsibility for the student, unless you have advised us otherwise in writing;
 - 2.1.4. You support the College Ethos as expressed in the College Statement of Faith and understand that all education and activities will be conducted by the College in a manner consistent with the Statement of Faith;
 - 2.1.5. You have read and understood the College Policies and will comply with these policies as they exist at the time of signing this contract and any variation made to the policies by the College to take into account changes in law, technology our operations and practices and the environment, and support the College in its adherence to, such policies. Such policies are not incorporated into the Enrolment Contract. Students from Year 7 up to Year 12 are regarded as being knowledgeably bound by the College Policies, on the assumption that their parents will have discussed the policies with them. Students in Years Prep to 6 are also bound by the policies, but allowances may be made in regard to their age and maturity in their understanding of them; and
 - 2.1.6. You understand a failure to comply with your obligations, including that a failure to complete the Application documents honestly, completely and correctly, or to make full disclosure, may result in the immediate termination of this Enrolment Contract by the school at the sole election of the College. If we elect to terminate the enrolment, this will result in forfeiture of any enrolment fees paid in advance.

3. Education

- 3.1. We will be responsible for the care of the student on College premises or at College sanctioned excursions on usual College days from 8.00 am until 3.15 pm and during pre-arranged extracurricular or co-curricular activities outside of these hours. You are responsible for the supervision and safety of the student outside of these hours unless otherwise arranged with the College.
- 3.2. Whilst parents and students may choose to engage in group activities outside of school hours (including on the College campus), unless set out in the school newsletter, portal or via an email from a College staff member, these are not organised or controlled by the College and parents are responsible for ensuring their child's safety at such events.
- 3.3. We will seek to educate the student with due care and skill;
- 3.4. We do not guarantee that students will achieve a specific level of academic achievement, but will provide every reasonable opportunity to the student to achieve to their fullest potential;
- 3.5. We will act in the best interests of the student individually where possible, and the student body generally. This may mean that some actions taken by the College may not be in accordance with parents requests.
- 3.6. We will determine the curriculum, and co-curriculum including which courses and activities are compulsory.
- 3.7. We will deliver the curriculum, co-curriculum and public events in accordance with Biblical principles and the traditional heritage of the Christian faith, particularly as expressed in Christian Outreach Centre Declaration of Faith.
- 3.8. You:
 - 3.8.1. will encourage the student to take full advantage of the curricular and co-curricular opportunities we will provide to further their education;
 - 3.8.2. will facilitate the student participating in mandatory school activities including sports, sports carnivals, camps, presentation night, and excursions designed to enrich and extend their education;

- 3.8.3. understand that it is a requirement that all students participate in Christian Education classes and activities including chapel and Christian Studies, regardless of their own faith background;
- 3.8.4. will provide all necessary books, uniforms and equipment that the student will require to enable them to benefit from the education offered by the College;
- 3.8.5. will ensure that the student is sent to school dressed properly in the required uniform;
- 3.8.6. will ensure that you comply with all relevant policies and rules set by the College to ensure that the student is able to take full advantage of the education offered by the College;
- 3.8.7. will ensure that any library books, textbooks, laptop and peripherals, musical instruments or other equipment provided to the student by the College are returned in reasonable condition to the College promptly when called for; and
- 3.8.8. will do all that is reasonably practicable to ensure the student complies with the policies and rules set by the College with a view to assisting the student to take full advantage of the education offered by the College.

4. Behavioural Expectations of the Student

- 4.1. We will provide you with access to copies of policies and rules that are prepared for the good order of the College from time to time. These policies and procedures can ordinarily be found in the parent portal. College procedures are located in the parent handbook.
- 4.2. As a member of the College community, the student is expected to exercise appropriate self-discipline and follow the established College and classroom rules, and to behave in a way that does not bring dishonour to the name of Christ, or disgrace to the College.
- 4.3. You will, as far as is practicable, ensure that the student complies with those policies and rules. These policies and rules do not form part of this contract, and may be amended from time to time.
- 4.4. The College does not guarantee that it can control the behaviour or activities of other students and parents. Each person is responsible for his or her own actions.
- 4.5. You understand that the College has a high expectation of student behaviour and discipline, personal presentation, conduct, effort in class, completion of homework, and general demeanour of students. You agree to support the College in its pursuit and application of these standards.
- 4.6. You understand that students are required to attend classes daily (Monday to Friday) unless alternative arrangements have been made with the College. Where a student is unable to attend school, the College is to be informed before 8.30 am.
- 4.7. You agree to ensure the student's involvement in all College activities, unless specifically exempted for medical reasons or granting of exclusion by the Head of College or their nominee.
- 4.8. You acknowledge and accept that we may discipline the student for failure to comply with reasonable directions given by a person in authority or for failure to comply with the school policies and rules. These failures may either occur on or off the school campus. Discipline of a student may include (without limitation):
 - 4.8.1. Detentions (including after school detentions with notice to the parents ahead of time);
 - 4.8.2. Suspension (internal and external); or
 - 4.8.3. Expulsion
- 4.9. You and the student will accept and comply with any and all reasonable behavioural management processes or sanctions applied for breach of school policies and rules. This includes taking reasonable steps toward seeking professional advice and assessment as recommended by College staff.
- 4.10. You understand that the Principal or Principal's Delegate (ordinarily, the Deputy Principal or Head of Primary or Secondary School) may suspend or expel the student from the school. Where discipline may involve suspension or expulsion of the student, the Principal or Principal's Delegate will not expel or suspend the student until the allegations of misconduct have been put to the student and the student has been allowed a reasonable opportunity to respond. Suspension or expulsion of a student will not occur except in the circumstances of serious misconduct or repeated breaches of school policies or rules or where the health and safety of students or staff is at risk.

- 4.11. You will be responsible for the costs of repair for any wilful damage caused to the property of the College or of an individual at the College, caused by the student.

5. Health and Well-being

- 5.1. You confirm that you have given us full information about the health and medical/psychological background of the student when applying for enrolment.
- 5.2. To assist us in fulfilling our duty of care to your child, you have an ongoing obligation to keep us fully informed of the student's health issues or other special needs. You are required to inform us as soon as practicable if there is any change in the health or physical abilities of the student while the student is at the school.
- 5.3. If the student has a medical issue or other type of emergency at a school function, school campus, or event, we shall make all practical attempts to contact you for instructions and/or authority to take steps for the student. If it is impossible or impractical to communicate with you, you authorise us to take action and incur expenditure as we consider necessary to ensure the health and safety of the student and to act in the best interests of the student. You must reimburse any expenditure we incur in connection with the health and safety of the student.
- 5.4. You agree to provide us with any medication required by the student and instructions in relation to the medication and we will follow these instructions in administering the medication to the student. You warrant therefore that the instructions you provide in respect of the medication is complete, correct and accurate.
- 5.5. You agree that in the event that staff require special training to administer the medication or respond to specific health issues (for example, in the case of a child that is diabetic), you are responsible for both organising and paying for that special training for all necessary staff, and until that has occurred, you will arrange to attend and administer the necessary medication as needed.
- 5.6. You also agree that if the College First Aid Officer may confirm or clarify any directions from a doctor in respect of administration of medication for a student, you will also immediately authorise the College to communicate with, and provide information to, and receive information from the doctor in respect of those directions.

6. Communication

- 6.1. We will provide information about the student to the parents/guardians signing this enrolment contract. Such communications will be sent by post or email to the email address/es nominated by the parents. The College may also communicate with parents about issues of wider application via the School Newsletter, Parent Portal or College website. You agree to regularly check your emails, log into the Portal and read the Newsletter for updated information.
- 6.2. Where communications are via post or a note or communication in the Primary diary which is sent home with students, it is the responsibility of the parents to share that information with each other. We are not responsible for the student's failure to provide you with this communication.
- 6.3. Where usual communications are via email, or the School Portal, we will make arrangements for you both to have individual log-ins to the Portal if so requested, and will include both parents email addresses on our mailing list. Other communications, including additional copies of student report cards, can be located in the parent portal.
- 6.4. You are required to keep us informed of your current details, and must give notice of a change in details as soon as reasonably practicable. Such details include without limitation:
 - 6.4.1. changes to your family circumstances which the College would reasonably expect to know;
 - 6.4.2. changes or additions to any relevant information including medical information and information required to assist us to educate the student.
 - 6.4.3. changes to the address or addresses, phone number, and email address or other contact details of both parents/guardians;
 - 6.4.4. providing the school with copies of any court orders or associated documents, including Family Court Orders, Parenting Plans, Domestic Violence Protection Orders or Department of Child Safety documents such as 'permission to care' documents, which deal with parental responsibility for the child, the education of the child or otherwise limits the contact or communication which one parent or other person has with the child;
- 6.5. You acknowledge that despite the College being provided with copies of any such orders the College does not assume responsibility for the parents/guardians complying with those orders, or enforcing such orders and the parents/guardians remain responsible for compliance with Orders and agreements.

- 6.6. You agree that we may act on the direction of one parent/guardian. The communication of a direction by one parent will be taken to have been given on behalf of all parents/ guardians.
- 6.7. Where a Court Order provides that one parent has sole parental responsibility for making decisions in relation to education matters, we will act only on that parent's direction irrespective of who has signed the enrolment contract.
- 6.8. In circumstances where separated parents are unable to agree on whether a child is to remain at the College, the College will not become involved in that disagreement. One parent/guardian may give not less than 3 months' notice of termination of this Enrolment Contract. The other parent/guardian will be at liberty (subject to order of the Court to the contrary), to apply to re-enrol the student of the College via an Enrolment Contract in their name only provided that both parents consent to the child remaining a student of the College or a Court Order is made to that effect.
- 6.9. If the parents have equal shared parental responsibility pursuant to Court Orders and do not agree on the child continuing to be educated at the College, the College shall continue to educate the child pursuant to this Enrolment Contract for a period of 3 months. During this period, the College expect the parent who seeks that the child remain at the College shall take steps to obtain a Court Order as to the schooling arrangements of the child, and provide an indemnity to the College. In the event that a Court Order has not been obtained and the parents remain in dispute, we may (in our sole discretion) terminate the enrolment of the student. This provision does not limit the usual termination provisions set out herein.
- 6.10. You understand that we are required to provide copies of report cards to each parent/guardian, or another person who has care and control of the student unless exceptional circumstances apply. Report cards will be provided to parents, guardians or other persons having care and control of the student at no cost, but may be distributed electronically, for example, via the Parent Portal.
- 6.11. If you request other persons (such as grandparents) to receive communications from us, you may be required to pay reasonable additional administration fees to cover postage and other administrative costs if applicable.
- 6.12. Where communication is to be with the entire school community or with identifiable sections of the school community, we may communicate through the school website, Parent Portal, email or via our regular newsletter.
- 6.13. We will display on our website and/or in handbooks the policies and rules and procedures with which you and the student are expected to comply. These are subject to change from time to time. Major changes will be communicated to the school community.
- 6.14. We will assume that both parents, and/or guardians are entitled and permitted to attend and participate in any and all activities of the College, unless you specifically provide us with information that this assumption does not apply, such as a Court Order. In the event that a Court Order permits a parent to attend and participate in the activities of the College, such participation is subject to the College's usual rules and processes about parental participation and attendance.

7. Fees

- 7.1. You agree to pay fees and levies as set by the College each term. The College does not agree to split fees or issue multiple invoices for families, unless by separate agreement subject to application to the Business Office and subsequent approval.
- 7.2. Any other arrangement you make with other persons who agree to make payment of fees and levies set by the College on behalf of the student is between you and the other person.
- 7.3. We will determine the fees for each term before the commencement of the year to which the fees apply. Fee invoices will generally be issued during the school holidays.
- 7.4. You are jointly and severally liable for the payment of fees.
- 7.5. Fees must be paid by you by the close of business Friday of the second week of each term (Due Date) unless prior arrangements have been made with the Accounts receivable Officer or Business Manager. Fees may be paid to us by direct deposit, BPay, cash or credit card.
- 7.6. In making alternative arrangements with you, you acknowledge that the College is not in the business of providing credit and does not make credit arrangements.
- 7.7. If you do not pay the Fees by the Due Date, we may charge late payment fees. You understand that failure to pay fees impacts upon the College's ability to pay its financial commitments, including the cost of collecting unpaid fees and late fees imposed are a reasonable estimate of the detriment the College will suffer from non-payment of Fees.

- 7.8. The College may at its discretion charge a Late Payment Fee of $40.00 each month from the Due Date for outstanding fees until such time as the fees are paid in full.
- 7.9. If you do not pay the monies owing to the College, the College reserves the right to pass the outstanding debt to its nominated collection agency or lawyers. Should the College incur any additional charges in collecting these fees, including debt collection fees, court and other legal costs howsoever incurred, these will be added to the outstanding debt, and will be the responsibility of the parents.
- 7.10. If you do not pay the monies owing to the College when due, the College reserves the right to terminate the enrolment of the student by notice in writing to you with immediate effect.
- 7.11. No remission of fees, either in whole or in part will be made should the student be absent for any reason whatsoever.
- 7.12. If the student does not promptly return to the College any library book, textbook, laptop or tablet or other item of equipment belonging to the College in reasonable condition when requested, we will issue you an invoice for the replacement cost of the item and you must pay us the replacement cost of that item.
- 7.13. Additional fees may be levied for non-compulsory or extra-curricular activities, which must be paid in full prior to the event. Where tuition fees are outstanding, tuition fees must be paid as priority to any non-compulsory or extra-curricular activities. Students are not able to participate in non-compulsory or extra-curricular activities whilst tuition fees are outstanding, such as SunArts, Mission Trips, Sporting Academies and excursions to the theatre.
- 7.14. The obligation to pay any outstanding but accrued fees or charges survives termination of this enrolment contract.

8. Indemnity and Release

- 8.1. You indemnify the College against any loss or damage caused by any failure by you or the student to comply with our rules and policies. You also indemnify us against any loss or damage caused by the wilful disobedience or reckless behaviour of the student.
- 8.2. The College strongly discourages the bringing of personal property by students which is not necessary for the education of the student. Additionally, you acknowledge that the College is not liable for loss or damage to property belonging to a student of any description and howsoever caused, and it is your responsibility to insure property if you consider it necessary or desirable to do so.

9. Other Matters

- 9.1. You agree that you will not commence any social media "page" or "group" which uses the College name or any part of the College name, or implies association with the College unless it is set up with the express permission of the College Marketing Manager and one of the administrators for the "page" or "group" is (and remains) a College staff member nominated by the College Marketing Manager.
- 9.2. You agree to behave in a manner that is respectful and polite, is in keeping with the Parent Code of Conduct, and does not bring the College into disrepute having regard to the College Ethos and Values. You agree that you will not engage in bullying, aggressive, abusive, or threatening behaviour or communication towards any member of the College Community, including via written communication. This includes communications that are made via social media.
- 9.3. Unless all parties being recorded are aware of an intention to record a conversation, and agree to the conversation being recorded, conversations between members of the College community are not to be recorded other than in writing.
- 9.4. You are required to exercise caution when recording via video, audio or image at College events (such as sports days) to avoid recording people other than your child wherever possible unless you are doing so with the consent of the other people. You must not publish or share Video, audio or images of people in the College community unless that is done with the express permission of each person recorded, or their parent.
- 9.5. The College reserves the right to exclude any person, irrespective of whether they are a parent or not, from entering on or remaining on College property, or participating in College activities (including participating in Social Media groups), where the College reasonably believes it is in the best interests of the student, the student body as a whole, or the College that the person be excluded. You will abide by any direction by the College in respect of entering or remaining on College property or attendance at College activities.

- 9.6. The College may exclude a student if they show symptoms of a communicable disease (such as measles or chicken pox) until such time as medical clearance advice has been provided to the effect that it is safe for the student to return to the College.
- 9.7. The College may exclude a student if they show symptoms of a communicable disease (such as measles or chicken pox) which the student has not been vaccinated against, for the relevant exclusion period.
- 9.8. We may search lockers, bags and property, including electronic devices in the possession of the student where it is reasonable for us to do so or as part of a general or random search of a place where we conduct our activities.
- 9.9. We may confiscate forbidden, illegal or dangerous property. In the event that illegal property is located during such a search, we will immediately contact the Police, and you, and report the possession of illegal property. Such illegal property will be handed to police.
- 9.10. You may not delegate your authority or responsibilities under this contract to a third person.
- 9.11. We will give you advance notice of the off-site excursions and sporting events that your child will be participating in. We will also seek separate consent from you for camps, overnight excursions, activities that may have higher risk, or excursions which incur additional costs.
- 9.12. You agree that you consent to the student attending usual school activities including off-site excursions, and sporting events requiring transportation by bus, unless you advise us that you do not consent to your child's participation in these activities.
- 9.13. You authorise your child to be transported on the School Bus for the purposes of attending school sport or excursions unless you advise us in writing that you have withdrawn your authority.

10. Privacy

- 10.1. The College has in place a Privacy Policy which is amended from time to time in accordance with the law.
- 10.2. The Privacy Policy does not form part of this Enrolment Contract but can be accessed online via the School Portal.
- 10.3. You agree to comply with your obligations under the Privacy Policy.
- 10.4. The College will take all steps as is reasonably necessary to comply with its obligations under the Privacy Policy.
- 10.5. The College will only collect Personal Information (including Sensitive Information) by lawful and fair means.
- 10.6. You acknowledge that information which identifies or is capable of identifying you or the student is Personal Information within the terms of the Australian Privacy Principles under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and that this information is collected and then used or disclosed to assist us in the primary purpose of providing education to the student or such other secondary purposes that are related to the primary purpose for collection and are reasonably expected, or to which you have consented (such as providing appropriate medical care to your child, and pastoral care to your child and family).
- 10.7. You acknowledge that Sensitive Information which includes health information about the student within the terms of the Australian Privacy Principles under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) is collected and used or disclosed to assist us in the primary purpose of providing education to the student or such other secondary purposes that are directly related to the primary purpose for which it was collected, (such as providing appropriate care for your child) unless you agree otherwise, or the use or disclosure of the Sensitive Information is allowed by law.
- 10.8. You acknowledge that you have consented to the collection, use and disclosure of Personal Information (including Sensitive Information) which you have provided to the College throughout the enrolment of the student including by way of the Application for Enrolment for the above primary purpose.
- 10.9. The College may obtain your consent to use Personal Information (including Sensitive Information) for a purpose other than the primary purpose for which it was collected.
- 10.10. You authorise us to disclose personal and sensitive information to others from time to time for administrative and educational purposes, including to other schools, government departments, medical practitioners and people providing services to the school including specialist visiting teachers, sporting coaches and staff, and volunteers. Such information will only be disclosed when necessary.
- 10.11. Personal information collected from students is disclosed to parents in most cases. Exceptions to provision of personal information of students to parents (for example, counselling records) include:
 - 10.11.1. Where a student has sufficient maturity and they direct us not to do so;
 - 10.11.2. Where disclosure would breach a law (including, for example, the privacy obligations the College holds to another person);

- 10.11.3. Where the disclosure would likely result in harm to the health or safety of a person; or
- 10.11.4. For another reason that is permitted by law.
- 10.12. You consent to Personal Information such as academic and sporting achievements, student activities, and other news being published in College newsletters, magazines and on our website and for other direct marketing purposes, unless you otherwise notified us in writing.
- 10.13. If you have a concern about privacy matters you may address the concern to the Privacy Officer at the College.
- 10.14. The Privacy Policy may be viewed on our website or we will provide a hard copy of the Privacy Policy if you request it.
- 10.15. In the event that the student turns 18 whilst they remain a student, the College may, seek the student's acceptance of the Privacy Provisions of this Contract.
- 10.16. The College shall retain information collected for a reasonable period of time. Information and documents may be destroyed (at the College's discretion) after the student turns 21 years of age.
- 10.17. You consent to the College storing Personal information including Sensitive Information in the cloud. We will, as far as possible, seek to store information on Australian servers predominantly. You accept that there will be occasions when data is stored on servers outside Australia.

11. Termination

- 11.1. This Enrolment Contract does not terminate simply because the student reaching the age of 18 years, and shall continue until either the student completes their schooling, or one of the parties chooses to terminate this agreement pursuant to these termination provisions.
- 11.2. You may terminate this enrolment contract if the fees increase for a year by more than 8 percentage points above the consumer price index (all groups Brisbane) of the fees payable for the preceding year provided that you provide us with notice in writing to us within fourteen (14) days of receiving notification of the fee increase.
- 11.3. You may terminate this enrolment contract if we have breached the terms of the contract, you have provided us with notice of the alleged breach, and given us a reasonable time to remedy the alleged breach of the contract and the breach has not been remedied.
- 11.4. You may also terminate this enrolment contract for any reason provided that you provide us with at least 1 term's notice. If you do not provide us with one term's notice, you must nevertheless pay to us the fees for that term. We commit resources on the basis of confirmed enrolments and will suffer loss from inadequate notification of termination.
- 11.5. If we expel the student you must pay fees for the whole of the term in which the student is expelled, and no refund of fees paid for the term in which the student is expelled will be given.
- 11.6. We may terminate this contract by notice in writing to you, with immediate effect if:
 - 11.6.1. we expel the student from the school;
 - 11.6.2. mutual trust and co-operation between us breaks down;
 - 11.6.3. you engage in conduct that is:
 - 11.6.3.1. unacceptable having regard to the behavioural expectations in this Contract or the Parent Code of Conduct;
 - 11.6.3.2. inconsistent or incompatible with the mission, values, or policies of the College; or
 - 11.6.3.3. prejudicial to the interests or reputation of the College;and you have not responded to the College or their nominee (including the solicitors of the College where applicable) request for an explanation or apology or rectification of the issue within a reasonable time;
- 11.6.4. The student ceases to attend the College on a regular basis without reasonable explanation;
- 11.6.5. you have failed to pay any sum of money which is owed to the College, and arrangements acceptable to us for payment have not been made; or
- 11.6.6. we decide that we do not wish to continue the contract for the following school year for any reason, and give you at least one clear term's notice.

12. Variation

- 12.1. The parties may agree to vary this Enrolment Contract by way of written agreement between the parties.
- 12.2. The College may unilaterally amend the terms of this Contract by giving 1 term's notice in writing to you, such notice to include the details of the amendments proposed.
- 12.3. You shall be deemed to have accepted the amendment to this Contract upon the first payment of school fees made in the term immediately following notice having been given by the College of the amended terms of this contract.
